

D230 NHS Selection Criteria and Membership Requirements

The Faculty Council’s Responsibilities

The faculty council works with the adviser to develop and periodically review local selection procedures and disciplinary procedures. Faculty council members serve for one year and may be appointed to consecutive terms. The faculty council meets at least once a year to:

- Review chapter procedures
- Select new members

They also meet, as needed, to consider disciplinary and/or dismissal actions.

Criteria for Admission and Membership

Criteria for admission and continued membership in National Honor Society is based upon demonstration of the Four Pillars of Academics, Character, Leadership and Service. The following criteria is reviewed to assist the Faculty Council in determining eligibility and participation in NHS.

Any infraction of Character Requirements related to Induction or Membership Criteria may be reviewed by the Faculty Council. The Faculty Council will make a recommendation to the School Principal for a student’s induction, retention, probation, or removal from the school’s chapter of the National Honor Society. The Principal will utilize the recommendations from the Faculty Council to make the final determination of a student’s induction or status in the National Honor Society.
